GEO. W. MILLER,

BOX B., WRIGHT'S GROVE P. O.,

CHICAGO, - - - ILL.

CHAS. N. TRIVESS, PRINTER, 71 and 73 Randolph St., Chicago.

I WISH to express my gratitude and thanks to my many friends and customers, for the very kind way in which they treated me during the Spring season, at which time I was experiencing such serious trouble, having mail stolen. Some firms wrote as many as six times about one order, and we did not receive any of them; others sent triplicate drafts before I succeeded in getting the remittance. I cannot thank one and all enough for their forbearance and patience, and would ask in the future if on writing to me you do not receive a reply in a reasonable length of time to write again and again if necessary. I always aim to be prompt in acknowledging letters, of whatever nature, also remittances. I have had no trouble in the past two months and more, so feel safe in saying it is at an end.

The stock contained in this Fall Trade List has been grown this summer, with great care in proving the stock, discarding unworthy and inferior varieties, and I feel certain it will meet with approval from all who purchase.

Very truly yours,

GEO. W. MILLER.
